Harvest

Monday October 2nd

Where?

Lidlington Church Hall

Why?

To celebrate the harvest!

This year we will be holding a Philippine Feast, which will consist of 3 courses, and a choice of menu bookable in advance. We will be supporting the Bishops Harvest Appeal, and Mercy in Action.

Both charities work to transform the lives of those living in poverty in the Philippines.

The Bishops Harvests appeal are supporting projects in the Tingalayan mountain district. Helping to develop community projects which will enable families in the remote rural areas to become self reliant. Therefore, they will be able to afford educational resources for their children, among other basic living needs.

Mercy in Action (I manage the Amphill shop), works with vulnerable children and families in the Cebu area. We have many projects, including the rescue and rehabilitation of exploited children, schooling programmes, child sponsorship and food kitchens.

There will be plenty of information from both charities on the night, and at our charity Cafe Church (please see diary section)

Both these charities transform the lives of those they reach.

So...lets make a differenc to someones life today, by booking to join us at our Harvest Philippine Feast.

At our supper, there will be prizes, good food, fellowship...and the odd Philippine Cocktail to enjoy!

We would love to see you there!
